

97TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 6260

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 9 (legislative day, JUNE 8), 1982

Received; read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

AN ACT

To authorize appropriations to the Patent and Trademark Office in the Department of Commerce, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That there is authorized to be appropriated for the payment
4 of salaries and necessary expenses of the Patent and Trade-
5 mark Office to become available for fiscal year 1983, 6 $76,000,000, and in fiscal years 1984 and 1985 such sums 7 as may be necessary as well as such additional or supplemen-8 tal amounts as may be necessary, for increases in salary, pay, 9 retirement, or other employee benefits authorized by law.
10 Funds available under this section shall be used to reduce by 11 50 per centum the payment of fees under section 41 (a) and 12 (b) of title 35, United States Code, by independent inventors

1 and nonprofit organizations as defined in regulations estab-
2 lished by the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks, and 3 by small business concerns as defined in section 3 of the 4 Small Business Act and by regulations established by the 5 Small Business Administration. When so specified and to the 6 extent provided in an appropriation Act, any amount appro-7 priated pursuant to this section and, in addition, such fees as 8 shall be collected pursuant to title 35, United States Code, 9 and the Trademark Act of 1946, as amended (15 U.S.C.
10 1051 et seq.), may remain available without fiscal year limi-11 tation.

12 SEC. 2. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, 13 there is authorized to be appropriated for the payment of sal-
14 aries and expenses of the Patent and Trademark Office, 15 $121,461,000 for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1982,
16 and such additional or supplemental amounts as may be nec-
17 essary for increases in salary, pay, retirement, or other em-
18 ployee benefits authorized by law.

19 SEC. 3. (a) Section 41(a) of title 35, United States
20 Code, is amended to read as follows:

21 “(a) The Commissioner shall charge the following fees:

22 “1. On filing each application for an original patent, 23 except in design or plant cases, $300; in addition, on filing or 24 on presentation at any other time, $30 for each claim in inde-
25 pendent form which is in excess of three, $10 for each claim

1 (whether independent or dependent) which is in excess of 2 twenty, and $100 for each application containing a multiple 3 dependent claim. For the purpose of computing fees, a multi-4 ple dependent claim as referred to in section 112 of this title
5 or any claim depending therefrom shall be considered as sep-6 arate dependent claims in accordance with the number of 7 claims to which reference is made. Errors in payment of the 8 additional fees may be rectified in accordance with regula-9 tions of the Commissioner.

10 “2. For issuing each original or reissue patent, except in 11 design or plant cases, $500.

12 “3. In design and plant cases:

13 “a. On filing each design application, $125.

14 “b. On filing each plant application, $200.

15 “c. On issuing each design patent, $175.

16 “d. On issuing each plant patent, $250.

17 “4. On filing each application for the reissue of a patent, 18 $300; in addition, on filing or on presentation at any other 19 time, $30 for each claim in independent form which is in 20 excess of the number of independent claims of the original 21 patent, and $10 for each claim (whether independent or de-22 pendent) which is in excess of twenty and also in excess of 23 the number of claims of the original patent. Errors in pay-24 ment of the additional fees may be rectified in accordance 25 with regulations of the Commissioner.

1 “5. On filing each disclaimer, $50.

2 “6. On filing an appeal from the examiner to the Board 3 of Appeals, $115; in addition, on filing a brief in support of 4 the appeal, $115, and on requesting an oral hearing before 5 the Board of Appeals, $100.

6 “7. On filing each petition for the revival of an uninten-
7 tionally abandoned application for a patent or for the uninten-8 tionally delayed payment of the fee for issuing each patent, 9 $500, unless the petition is filed under sections 133 or 151 of 10 this title, in which case the fee shall be $50.

11 “8. For petitions for one-month extensions of time to 12 take actions required by the Commissioner in an application:

13 “a. On filing a first petition, $50.

14 “b. On filing a second petition, $100.

15 “c. On filing a third or subsequent petition, 16 $200.”.

17 (b) Section 41(b) of title 35, United States Code, is 18 amended to read as follows:

19 “(b) The Commissioner shall charge the following fees 20 for maintaining a patent in force:

21 “1. Three years and six months after grant, $400.

22 “2. Seven years and six months after grant, 23 $800.

24 “3. Eleven years and six months after grant, 25 $1,200.

1 Unless payment of the applicable maintenance fee is received 2 in the Patent and Trademark Office on or before the date the 3 fee is due or within a grace period of six months thereafter, 4 the patent will expire as of the end of such grace period. The 5 Commissioner may require the payment of a surcharge as a 6 condition of accepting within such six-month grace period the 7 late payment of an applicable maintenance fee. No fee will be 8 established for maintaining a design or plant patent in 9 force.”.

10 (c) Section 41(c) of title 35, United States Code, is 11 amended to read as follows:

12 “(c)(1) The Commissioner may accept the payment of 13 any maintenance fee required by subsection (b) of this section 14 after the six-month grace period if the delay is shown to the 15 satisfaction of the Commissioner to have been unavoidable.
16 The Commissioner may require the payment of a surcharge
17 as a condition of accepting payment of any maintenance fee
18 after the six-month grace period. If the Commissioner ac-
19 cepts payment of a maintenance fee after the six-month grace 20 period, the patent shall be considered as not having expired
21 at the end of the grace period.

22 “(2) No patent, the term of which has been maintained
23 as a result of the acceptance of a payment of a maintenance 24 fee under this subsection, shall abridge or affect the right of 25 any person or his successors in business who made, pur-

1 chased or used after the six-month grace period but prior to 2 the acceptance of a maintenance fee under this subsection 3 anything protected by the patent, to continue the use of, or to 4 sell to others to be used or sold, the specific thing so made, 5 purchased, or used. The court before which such matter is in 6 question may provide for the continued manufacture, use or 7 sale of the thing made, purchased, or used as specified, or for 8 the manufacture, use or sale of which substantial preparation 9 was made after the six-month grace period but before the 10 acceptance of a maintenance fee under this subsection, and it 11 may also provide for the continued practice of any process, 12 practiced, or for the practice of which substantial preparation 13 was made, after the six-month grace period but prior to the 14 acceptance of a maintenance fee under this subsection, to the 15 extent and under such terms as the court deems equitable for 16 the protection of investments made or business commenced 17 after the six-month grace period but before the acceptance of 18 a maintenance fee under the subsection.”.

19 (d) Section 41(d) of title 35, United States Code, is 20 amended to read as follows:

21 “(d) The Commissioner will establish fees for all other 22 processing, services, or materials related to patents not speci-23 fied above to recover the estimated average cost to the Office 24 of such processing, services, or materials. The yearly fee for 25 providing a library specified in section 13 of this title with

1 uncertified printed copies of the specifications and drawings
2 for all patents issued in that year will be $50.”.

3 (e) Section 41(f) of title 35, United States Code, is
4 amended to read as follows:

5 “(f) The fees established in subsections (a) and (b) of this 6 section may be adjusted by the Commissioner on October 1, 7 1985, and every third year thereafter, to reflect any fluctu-
8 ations occurring during the previous three years in the Con-
9 sumer Price Index, as determined by the Secretary of Labor.
10 Changes of less than 1 per centum may be ignored.”.

11 (f) Subsection (a) of section 31 of the Trademark Act of 12 1946, as amended (15 U.S.C. 1113), is amended by deleting
13 “Fees will be set and adjusted by the Commissioner to recov-
14 er in aggregate 50 per centum of the estimated average cost 15 to the Office of such processing. Fees for all other services or 16 materials related to trademarks and other marks will recover 17 the estimated average cost to the Office of performing the 18 service or furnishing the material.”.

19 (g) Section 42(c) of title 35, United States Code, is 20 amended by adding the following sentence at the end thereof: 21 “Fees available to the Commissioner under section 31 of the 22 Trademark Act of 1946, as amended (15 U.S.C. 1113), shall 23 be used exclusively for the processing of trademark registra-
24 tions and for other services and materials related to trade-25 marks.”.

1 SEC. 4. Section 3(a) of title 35, United States Code is 2 amended (1) by deleting the phrase "not more than fifteen"; 3 and (2) by inserting the phrase "appointed under section 7 of 4 this title" immediately after the phrase "examiners-in-chief".

5 SEC. 5. Section 111 of title 35, United States Code, is
6 amended to read as follows:

7 "SEC. 111. Application for patent shall be made, or au-
8 thorized to be made, by the inventor, except as otherwise 9 provided in this title, in writing to the Commissioner. Such 10 application shall include (1) a specification as prescribed by 11 section 112 of this title; (2) a drawing as prescribed by sec-12 tion 113 of this title; and (3) an oath by the applicant as 13 prescribed by section 115 of this title. The application must 14 be accompanied by the fee required by law. The fee and oath
15 may be submitted after the specification and any required 16 drawing are submitted, within such period and under such 17 conditions, including the payment of a surcharge, as may be 18 prescribed by the Commissioner. Upon failure to submit the 19 fee and oath within such prescribed period, the application 20 shall be regarded as abandoned, unless it is shown to the 21 satisfaction of the Commissioner that the delay in submitting 22 the fee and oath was unavoidable. The filing date of an appli-23 cation shall be the date on which the specification and any 24 required drawing are received in the Patent and Trademark 25 Office."

1 SEC. 6. (a) Section 116 of title 35, United States Code, 2 is amended (1) by deleting the phrase "Joint inventors" from 3 the title and inserting in its place "Inventors"; and (2) in the 4 third paragraph, by deleting the phrase "a person is joined in 5 an application for patent as joint inventor through error, or a 6 joint inventor is not included in an application through error" 7 and inserting in its place the phrase "through error a person 8 is named in an application for patent as the inventor, or 9 through error an inventor is not named in an application".

10 (b) Section 256 of title 35, United States Code, is
11 amended to read as follows:

12 "§ 256. Correction of named inventor

13 "Whenever through error a person is named in an 14 issued patent as the inventor, or through error an inventor is 15 not named in an issued patent and such error arose without 16 any deceptive intention on his part, the Commissioner may, 17 on application of all the parties and assignees, with proof of 18 the facts and such other requirements as may be imposed, 19 issue a certificate correcting such error.

20 "The error of omitting inventors or naming persons who 21 are not inventors shall not invalidate the patent in which 22 such error occurred if it can be corrected as provided in this 23 section. The court before which such matter is called in ques-
24 tion may order correction of the patent on notice and hearing

1 of all parties concerned and the Commissioner shall issue a 2 certificate accordingly.”.

3 SEC. 7. Section 6 of title 35, United States Code, is 4 amended by deleting paragraph (d) thereof.

5 SEC. 8. (a) Section 8(a) of the Trademark Act of 1946,
6 as amended (15 U.S.C. 1058(a)), is amended (1) by deleting
7 the word “still”; and (2) by inserting the phrase “in com-8 merce” immediately after the word “use”.

9 (b) Section 8(b) of the Trademark Act of 1946, as 10 amended (15 U.S.C. 1058(b)), is amended (1) by deleting the 11 word “still”; and (2) by inserting the phrase “in commerce” 12 immediately after the word “use”.

13 SEC. 9. (a) Section 13 of the Trademark Act of 1946, as 14 amended (15 U.S.C. 1063), is amended (1) by deleting the 15 phrase “a verified” and inserting in its place the word “an”; 16 (2) by adding the phrase “when requested prior to the expira-17 tion of an extension” immediately after the word “cause”; 18 and (3) by deleting the fourth sentence.

19 (b) Section 14 of the Trademark Act of 1946, as amend-20 ed (15 U.S.C. 1064), is amended by deleting the word “veri-21 fied”.

22 SEC. 10. Section 15 of the Trademark Act of 1946, as 23 amended (15 U.S.C. 1065), is amended by deleting the 24 phrase “the publication” and inserting in its place the word 25 “registration”.

1 SEC. 11. The first sentence of section 16 of the Trade-
2 mark Act of 1946, as amended (15 U.S.C. 1066), is amended
3 to read as follows: "Upon petition showing extraordinary cir-
4 cumstances, the Commissioner may declare that an interfer-
5 ence exists when application is made for the registration of a 6 mark which so resembles a mark previously registered by 7 another, or for the registration of which another has previ-8 ously made application, as to be likely when applied to the 9 goods or when used in connection with the services of the 10 applicant to cause confusion or mistake or to deceive."

11 SEC. 12. Section 21 of title 35, United States Code, is 12 amended—

13 (1) by deleting the phrase "Day for taking action 14 falling on Saturday, Sunday, or holiday" from the title 15 and inserting in its place the phrase "Filing date and 16 day for taking action";

17 (2) by inserting the following as subsection (a):

18 "(a) The Commissioner may by rule prescribe that any 19 paper or fee required to be filed in the Patent and Trademark 20 Office will be considered filed in the Office on the date on 21 which it was deposited with the United States Postal Service 22 or would have been deposited with the United States Postal 23 Service but for postal service interruptions or emergencies
24 designated by the Commissioner.";

1 (3) by designating the existing paragraph as sub-2 section (b); and

3 (4) by inserting the word "federal" in subsection
4 (b), as designated above, immediately after the word 5 "a".

6 SEC. 13. Section 6(a) of title 35, United States Code, is 7 amended (1) by deleting the word "and", third occurrence, 8 and inserting in its place a comma; (2) by inserting the phrase 9 ", or exchanges of items or services" immediately after the 10 word "programs"; and (3) by inserting the phrase "or the 11 administration of the Patent and Trademark Office" immedi-12 ately after the word "law", second occurrence.

13 SEC. 14. (a) Section 115 of title 35, United States 14 Code, is amended by (1) deleting the phrase "shall be" and 15 inserting in its place the word "is"; and (2) inserting the 16 following immediately after the phrase "United States", third 17 occurrence: ", or apostille of an official designated by a for-18 eign country which, by treaty or convention, accords like 19 effect to apostilles of designated officials in the United 20 States".

21 (b) Section 261 of title 35, United States Code, is 22 amended, in the third paragraph, by inserting the following 23 immediately after the phrase "United States", third occur-24 rence: ", or apostille of an official designated by a foreign

1 country which, by treaty or convention, accords like effect to 2 apostilles of designated officials in the United States”.

3 (c) Section 11 of the Trademark Act of 1946, as amend-4 ed (15 U.S.C. 1061), is amended by (1) deleting the phrase 5 “shall be”, first occurrence, and inserting in its place the 6 word “is”; and (2) inserting the following immediately after 7 the phrase “United States”, third occurrence: “, or apostille
8 of an official designated by a foreign country which, by treaty 9 or convention, accords like effect to apostilles of designated 10 officials in the United States”.

11 SEC. 15. Section 13 of title 35, United States Code, is 12 amended by deleting “(a) 9” and inserting in its place “(d)”.

13 SEC. 16. Section 173 of title 35, United States Code, is 14 amended to read as follows: “Patents for designs shall be 15 granted for the term of fourteen years.”

16 SEC. 17. (a) Sections 1, 2, 4, 7, and 13 through 15 of 17 this Act shall take effect on the date of enactment of this Act.
18 Sections 3 and 16 of this Act shall take effect on October 1, 19 1982. The maintenance fees provided for in section 3(b) of 20 this Act shall not apply to patents applied for prior to the 21 date of enactment of this Act. Each patent applied for on or 22 after the date of enactment of this Act shall be subject to the 23 maintenance fees established pursuant to section 3(b) of this 24 Act or to maintenance fees hereafter established by law, as to

1 the amounts paid and the number and timing of the pay-2 ments.

3 (b)(1) Title 35, United States Code, is amended by in-4 serting after section 293 the following new section of chapter 5 29:

6 “§ 294. Voluntary arbitration

7 “(a) A contract involving a patent or any right under a 8 patent may contain a provision requiring arbitration of any 9 dispute relating to patent validity or infringement arising 10 under the contract. In the absence of such a provision, the 11 parties to an existing patent validity or infringement dispute 12 may agree in writing to settle such dispute by arbitration.
13 Any such provision or agreement shall be valid, irrevocable, 14 and enforceable, except for any grounds that exist at law or 15 in equity for revocation of a contract.

16 “(b) Arbitration of such disputes, awards by arbitrators 17 and confirmation of awards shall be governed by title 9, 18 United States Code, to the extent such title is not inconsis-19 ent with this section. In any such arbitration proceeding, the 20 defenses provided for under section 282 of this title shall be 21 considered by the arbitrator if raised by any party to the 22 proceeding.

23 “(c) An award by an arbitrator shall be final and binding
24 between the parties to the arbitration but shall have no force
25 or effect on any other person. The parties to an arbitration

1 may agree that in the event a patent which is the subject
2 matter of an award is subsequently determined to be invalid
3 or unenforceable in a judgment rendered by a court to compe-4 tent jurisdiction from which no appeal can or has been taken,
5 such award may be modified by any court of competent juris-6 diction upon application by any party to the arbitration. Any 7 such modification shall govern the rights and obligations be-8 tween such parties from the date of such modification.

9 “(d) When an award is made by an arbitrator, the pat-10 entee, his assignee or licensee shall give notice thereof in 11 writing to the Commissioner. There shall be a separate notice 12 prepared for each patent involved in such proceeding. Such 13 notice shall set forth the names and addresses of the parties, 14 the name of the inventor, and the name of the patent owner, 15 shall designate the number of the patent, and shall contain a 16 copy of the award. If an award is modified by a court, the 17 party requesting such modification shall give notice of such 18 modification to the Commissioner. The Commissioner shall, 19 upon receipt of either notice, enter the same in the record of 20 the prosecution of such patent. If the required notice is not 21 filed with the Commissioner, any party to the proceeding
22 may provide such notice to the Commissioner.

23 “(e) The award shall be unenforceable until the notice
24 required by subsection (d) is received by the Commissioner.”.

1 (2) The analysis for chapter 29 of title 35 of the United 2 States Code is amended by adding at the end the following:

“294. Voluntary arbitration.”.

3 (c) Sections 5, 6, 8 through 12, and 17(b) of this Act
4 shall take effect six months after enactment.

Passed the House of Representatives June 8, 1982.
