

COPYRIGHT OWNER: Arthur Adrian Faulconer

CASH NUMBER: 40689

TITLE: "EGGS IN A BLUE BOWL"

QUESTION: Form of copyright notice.

QUESTION: Notice on copies reads: "Copyright 1937, for "Wagon & Star", by Arthur Adrian Faulconer". The application gives the name of the copyright owner as "Arthur Adrian Faulconer". Is notice acceptable? Should applicant be advised as to correct notice in the future?

DECISION: The notice is adequate and has all the elements prescribed by the Copyright Act. The statement "for Wagon & Star" merely indicates the party for whom Mr. Falconer is the TRUSTEE. This extraneous matter does not make the notice fatally defective.
