

United States District Court,
E.D. Pennsylvania.

MERIT INDUSTRIES, INC,
v.
JVL CORPORATION.

Aug. 27, 2007.

Dawn Rudenko, Dickstein, Shapiro, LLP, New York, NY, Gary M. Hoffman, Peter A. Veytsman, Kenneth W. Brothers, Dickstein, Shapiro, LLP, Washington, DC, Kevin R. Hamel, Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, LLP, Richard A. Woldin, Ronald L. Panitch, Panitch Schwarze Bellsario & Nadel, LLP, Jason A. Snyderman, Blank, Rome, LLP, Philadelphia, PA, for Merit Industries, Inc.

Jesse J. Jenner, Mark H. Bloomberg, Francisco A. Villegas, Michael P. Kahn, William J. McCabe, Ropes & Gray, LLP, New York, NY, Alisha J. Massie, Ropes & Gray, LLP, Boston, MA, Philip G. Kircher, Cozen O'Connor, Phila, PA, for JVL Corporation.

ORDER

TIMOTHY J. SAVAGE, District Judge.

AND NOW, this 24th day of August, 2007, it is ORDERED that the following claim constructions are adopted:

Patent	Term	Construction
'717	"video game menu options"	video games that can be selected in the programming mode to be video game menu choices playable in the menu choice selection mode
'717	"video game menu choices"	video games, selected from among the video game menu options, made available for play in the menu choice selection mode
'717	"programming mode"	a mode in which video game menu options are selected to be video game menu choices
'717	"displaying ... options and ... choices"	[no construction required]
'717	"a first region" and "a second region"	[no construction required]
'717	"menu choice selection display"	a display of video game menu choices selected from the video game menu options
'717	"placing"	[no construction required]
'887	"tournament game"	a game playable in the tournament mode
'887	"sequence of tournament games"	one or more types of tournament games played at least two times in succession

'887	"tournament period for each tournament game"	a period of time, set during the setup mode, during which each tournament game in a sequence can be played
'887	"a game playable in the non-tournament mode"	[no construction required]
'887	"only a single tournament game is playable for each sequence"	each sequence of tournament games consists of two or more repetitions of the same tournament game
'799	"coin type"	[no construction required]
'799	"showing ... the total number of currency units to be associated with each coin type"	[no construction required]
'799	"selecting the total number of currency units to be associated with each coin type"	[no construction required]
'799	"showing ... the number of game credits associated with each coin type"	[no construction required]
'799	"selecting the number of game credits to be associated with each coin type"	[no construction required]
'799	"showing ... a number of game credits associated with a deposit of one coin of a particular type"	[no construction required]
'799	"selecting the number of game credits to be associated with a deposit of one coin for each of the different coin types"	[no construction required]

E.D.Pa.,2007.

Merit Industries, Inc. v. JVL Corp.

Produced by Sans Paper, LLC.