

United States District Court,
E.D. Virginia, Richmond Division.

TALTWELL, LLC,
Plaintiff.

v.

ZONET USA CORP., d/b/a/ Zonet USA, Inc. and Zonet, Inc. et al, Defendant.

Civil Action No. 3:07cv543

March 31, 2008.

John David Mayberry, Eric Louis Sophir, Kenneth Alexander Godlewski, Sean Michael Green, Stephen Eric Baskin, Kilpatrick Stockton LLP, Washington, DC, William K. Wells, Jr., Great Falls, VA, for Plaintiff.

Lawrence Alexis Dunn, Morris & Morris, Richmond, VA, Jen-Feng Lee, Kenneth Kazuo Tanji, Jr., Worldesquire Law Firm LLP, Pasadena, CA, for Defendant.

ORDER

ROBERT E. PAYNE, Senior District Judge.

For the reasons set forth in the accompanying Memorandum Opinion, the following terms are given the following constructions:

- (1) "couplable" is construed to mean capable of connection, whether wired or wireless.
- (2) "credit card sized" is construed to mean approximately credit card sized.
- (3) "processor" is construed to mean a functional unit that does not include a keypad.

It is SO ORDERED.

E.D.Va.,2008.

Taltwell, LLC v. Zonet USA Corp.

Produced by Sans Paper, LLC.