

United States District Court,
W.D. Pennsylvania.

Joan HODAK, trading and doing business as Aquador, Plaintiff.

v.

JEDCO PRODUCTS, INC., Ultimate Swimming Pools, Inc., Jerry Hodak and Linda Hodak, husband and wife,
Defendants.

Feb. 25, 2009.

Leland P. Schermer, Michael G. Monyok, Leland, Schermer & Associates, Pittsburgh, PA, Howard F.
Messer, Howard, Messer & Associates, P.C., for Plaintiff.

Bryan H. Opalko, Buchanan, Ingersoll & Rooney, PC, Pittsburgh, PA, David J. Porter, Buchanan Ingersoll, for Defendants.

ORDER OF COURT

DAVID STEWART CERCONE, District Judge.

AND NOW, this 25th day of February, 2009, for the reasons set forth in the Memorandum issued this day,
IT IS ORDERED that the claim terms in dispute are defined as follows:

"Peripheral Edge"-any edge of the face plate that is peripheral to the central opening of the face plate;

"Peripheral Edge Extending Therearound"-a peripheral edge that extends entirely around the central opening;

"sealing means"-a flange, bead, or sidewall on the face plate, and a lip of the cover element, which combine to block water from entering the skimmer assembly, and equivalent structures that perform the same function.

W.D.Pa.,2009.

Hodak v. Jedco Products, Inc.

Produced by Sans Paper, LLC.