

S. 646

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

FEBRUARY 8 (legislative day, JANUARY 26), 1971

MR. McCLELLAN (for himself and Mr. SCOTT) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To amend title 17 of the United States Code to provide for the creation of a limited copyright in sound recordings for the purpose of protecting against unauthorized duplication and piracy of sound recording, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 That title 17 of the United States Code is amended in the 4 following respects:

5 (a) In section 1, title 17, of the United States Code,
6 add a subsection (f) to read:

7 “To reproduce and distribute to the public by sale or 8 other transfer of ownership, or by rental, lease, or lending,
9 reproductions of the copyrighted work if it be a sound record-

1 ing: Provided, That the exclusive right of the owner of a
2 copyright in a sound recording to reproduce it is limited
3 to the right to duplicate the sound recording in a tangible
4 form that directly or indirectly recaptures the actual sounds
5 fixed in the recording: Provided further, That this right
6 does not extend to the making or duplication of another sound
7 recording that is an independent fixation of other sounds, 8 even though such sounds imitate or simulate those in the 9 copyrighted sound recording; or to single ephemeral record-
10 ings made by transmitting organizations for their own use.

11 (b) In section 5, title 17, of the United States Code, add 12 a subsection (n) to read:

13 “Sound recordings other than fixations of sound ac-
14 companying a motion picture.”

15 (c) In section 19, title 17, of the United States Code, 16 add the following at the end of the section: “In the case of 17 reproductions of works specified in subsection (n) of section 18 5 of this title, the notice shall consist of the symbol P (the 19 letter P in a circle), the year of first publication of the sound 20 recording, and the name of the owner of copyright in the 21 sound recording, or an abbreviation by which the name can 22 be recognized, or a generally known alternative designation
23 of the owner: Provided, That if the producer of the sound 24 recording is named on the labels or containers of the repro-

1 duction, and if no other name appears in conjunction with 2 the notice, his name shall be considered a part of the notice.”

3 (d) In section 20, title 17, of the United States Code,
4 amend the first sentence to read: “The notice of copyright
5 shall be applied, in the case of a book or other printed pub-
6 lication, upon its title page or the page immediately follow-7 ing, or if a periodical either upon the title page or upon the 8 first page of text of each separate number or under the title 9 heading, or if a musical work either upon its title page or the 10 first page of music, or if a sound recording on the surface
11 thereof or on the label or container in such manner and loca-
12 tion as to give reasonable notice of the claim of copyright.”

13 (e) In section 26, title 17, of the United States Code,
14 add the following at the end of the section: “For the purposes
15 of this section and sections 10, 11, 13, 14, 21, 101, 106, 109,
16 209, 215, but not for any other purpose, a reproduction of a 17 work described in subsection 5 (n) shall be considered to 18 be a copy thereof.

19 SEC. 2. This Act shall take effect three months after its 20 enactment. The provisions of title 17 of the United States
21 Code shall apply only to sound recordings fixed, published, 22 and copyrighted on and after the effective date of this Act and 23 nothing in title 17 of the United States Code shall be applied 24 retroactively or be construed as affecting in any way any 25 rights with respect to sound recordings fixed before that date.

A BILL

To amend title 17 of the United States Code to provide for the creation of a limited copyright in sound recordings for the purpose of protecting against unauthorized duplication and piracy of sound recording, and for other purposes.
