TRADEMARK REMEDY CLARIFICATION ACT

Mr. HUGHES. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that the Committee on the Judiciary be discharged from further consideration of the Senate bill (S. 769) to amend certain trademark laws to clarify that States, instrumentalities of States, and officers and employees of States acting in their official capacity, are subject to suit in Federal court by any person for infringement of trademarks, and that all the remedies can be obtained in such suit that can be obtained in a suit against a private entity, and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New Jersey?

Mr. MOORHEAD. Reserving the right to object, Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from New Jersey for an explanation.

(Mr. HUGHES asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. HUGHES. Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of S. 759, a bill which would clarify that States, their employees and officers acting in an official capacity, and instrumentalities of State are not immune from suit in Federal court for violations of trademark infringement.

This is a companion bill to the bill we just passed, S. 758, relating to State sovereign immunity for patent infringement.

During the 101st Congress, a bill relating to the waiver of State sovereign immunity in cases of copyright violation was enacted into law. The issues are similar to that of patent and trademark violations. As with patents, there are a number of cases involving trademark infringements by States.

In the 101st Congress, infringement of trademarks by States was the subject of testimony during hearings on legislation in the 101st Congress to waive State sovereign immunity for patent violations. The waiver of State sovereign immunity for patent violations was approved by the Judiciary Committee.

In an era in which we are working to craft international agreements to protect intellectual property rights, it is important that we set an example in our own country. We cannot permit States to evade liability to which private entities are subject.

I urge adoption of this bill.

Mr. MOORHEAD. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman for his explanation, and I withdraw my reservation of objection.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New Jersey?

There was no objection.

The Clerk read the Senate bill, as follows:

S. 759

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
